Rakugo is a comic storytelling art that has entertained the Japanese people for over 400 years. This one-man show, presented from a kneeling position with only two simple props – a fan and a towel, is sure to entertain.

Sanyutei Ryuraku is a rakugo storyteller who has given 160 performances abroad, in seven different foreign languages. Though unique to Japan, rakugo shares universal human sagas through the prism of laughter.
